

Come Back On Yourself

Hurt is a circle
Especially for those involved in triangles
Of love
But it's not enough
That you will
Come back on yourself
Lost and looking
For anything
Candles and prayer,
Love spells
With dolls all prepared
For voodoo
Because the other two
Don't know what to do with you

Why don't you make it easy for them?
And become
As silent as the snow
Let your silence
Be the undiscovered eighth note
In this three part harmony

Hurt is a four letter word
Especially when there's three
To please
Return the silver slippers to the freezer
Because you will
Need to come back on yourself
Cold and calculating
Speculating
Trust and lust
And pacts with the Devil
Tacitly agreed to
Because the other two
Don't know what to do with you

Why don't you make it easy for them?
And become
As silent as the snow
Let your silence
Be the undiscovered eighth note
In this three part harmony

Hurt is a sport
Especially for the hunter
In love
But it's not enough
That you will
Come back on yourself
Searching and starving
For anything
Moving or dead
With fur or scale
Or wearing red
Even cloven hoofed
Because the other two
Don't know what to do with you

Why don't you make it easy for them?
Let your silence
Be the eighth note
In this three part harmony
And you become
